

Children's Hospital of Philadelphia Announced the Opening of a Gender and Sexuality Clinic in Voorhees, New Jersey

According to NJBIZ (October 13, 2020), the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia announced Tuesday it opened a gender and sexuality development clinic at its Voorhees Specialty Care Center in Voorhees Township, New Jersey. The center, called the Gender and Sexuality Clinic New Jersey, will offer psychosocial and medical support for gender-variant, gender-expansive and transgender children and youth up to age 22 and their families. In addition to providing medical and behavioral health support, it will connect children, adolescents and their families with gender-affirming healthcare providers.
